BY LAWS OF WAYNE WINGS YOUTH SOCCER CLUB, INC.

Article I Offices

The principal office of the Corporation shall be located in Ontario Center, New York. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places within or without the State of New York as the Board may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

Article II Purposes

The purposes for which this Corporation has been organized are to train and give instruction in the sport of soccer to its members so that they may learn and develop the skills necessary to participate in the activity; to promote the involvement of youth in the sport; to teach and enhance those characteristics of honesty, good fellowship, discipline, team play and self-confidence which are the essentials of good sportsmanship; to foster amateur soccer matches among its members and members of other similarly constituted organizations for the benefit, enjoyment and well being of all participants; and for any and all other purposes as stated in the Certificate of Incorporation, as amended.

Article III Members

1. Members

Each family which has a child or children enrolled in any program conducted by the Corporation during the prior year, shall be a member entitled to one (1) vote. The information provided on the program registration forms shall be used as the basis for determining the identity of the member and the address of the member.

2. Place of Meetings

Meetings of Members shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation or at such place within Wayne County or Monroe County, New York as the Board shall authorize.

3. Annual Meetings

The annual meeting of the Members shall be held within the month of November or such other time as the Board may direct, when the Members shall transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

4. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Members may be called by the Board or by the Chairman and shall be called by the Chairman or the Secretary at the request in writing by Members entitled to cast ten percent (10%) of the total number of votes entitled to be cast at such meeting. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting. Business transacted at a special meeting shall be confined to the purposes stated in the notice.

5. Notice of Meetings of Members

Notice of meetings of Members shall be given personally or by first class mail, not less than ten (10) days nor more than fifty (50) days before the date set for such meeting to each Member entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice is given when deposited in the United States mail, with postage thereon prepaid, directed to the Member at his address as it appears on the record of Members, or if he shall have filed with the secretary of the Corporation a written request that notices to him shall be mailed to some other address, then directed to him at such other address; but as to any Member who attends a meeting without protesting, prior to the conclusion of the meeting, the lack of notice of such meeting, and as to any Member who submits a signed waiver of notice, the giving of notice as above described may be dispensed with. A notice for a special meeting shall state the purpose for which it is called and indicate that the notice is being issued by or at the direction of the person or persons calling the meeting. No business other than that specified in the call for the meeting shall be transacted at any special meeting of the Members, except upon the unanimous consent of all the Members entitled to notice thereof.

6. List of Members

A list or record of Members entitled to vote, certified by the Secretary shall be produced at any meeting of Members upon the request therefor of any Member who has given written notice to the Corporation that such request will be made at least ten (10) days prior to such meeting. If the right to vote at any meeting is challenged, the inspectors of election, or if none, the person presiding thereat, shall require such list or record of Members to be produced as evidence of the right of the persons challenged to vote at such meeting, and all persons who appear from such list or record to be Members entitled to vote thereat may vote at such meeting.

7. Quorum of Members

At any meeting of the Members, the lesser of 100 Members or 10% of the Members entitled to cast a vote shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of Members for the transaction of any business.

When a quorum is once present to organize a meeting, it is not broken by the subsequent withdrawal of any Members.

The Members present may adjourn the meeting despite the absence of a quorum.

8. Vote of Members

- a) In any case in which a Member is entitled to vote, such Member shall have one (1) vote.
- b) Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at a meeting of the Members entitled to vote in the election.
- c) All other Corporation action shall be authorized by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of Members by the Members entitled to vote thereon.
- d) Voting by proxy is permitted.

9. Written Consent of Members

Any action that may be taken by vote may be taken without a meeting by written consent, setting forth the action so taken, signed by all Members entitled to vote thereon.

1. Board of Directors

Subject to any provision in the Certificate of Incorporation the business of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors, each of whom shall be at least 21 years of age.

2. Number of Directors

The number of Directors shall be not less than three (3). The Board of Directors may increase that number to a maximum of nine (9).

3. Election and Term of Directors

At the first annual meeting of Members, the Members shall elect Directors. The two (2) Directors who receive the most votes shall each serve a three (3) year term, the one (1) Director who receives the next most votes shall each serve a two (2) year term and the remaining one (1) Director shall serve a one (1) year term. Thereafter, all Directors shall serve three (3) year terms. At each subsequent annual meeting of Members, the Members shall elect Directors to fill any vacancies. Each Director shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which he is elected and until his successor has been elected and qualified, or until his prior resignation or removal except for the Commander who shall serve for as long as he is Commander. There shall be no limit on the number of terms, which any Member may serve.

4. Newly Created Directorships and Vacancies

Newly created Directorships resulting from an increase in the number of Directors and vacancies occurring in the Board for any reason may be filled by a vote of a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum exists, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation. A Director elected to fill a vacancy caused by resignation, death, or removal shall be elected to hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

5. Removal of Directors

Any or all of the Directors may be removed with or without cause by vote of the Members or for cause only by vote of the Directors when there is a quorum of not less than a majority present at the meeting of Directors at which such action is taken.

6. Resignation

A Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board, the President or the Secretary of the Corporation. Unless otherwise specified in the notice, the resignation shall take effect upon receipt thereof by the Board or such officer, and the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

7. Quorum of Directors

Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, a majority of the entire Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business or of any specified item of business.

8. Action of the Board

Unless otherwise required by law, the vote of a majority of the Directors present at the time of the vote, if a quorum is present at such time, shall be the act of the Board. Each Director present shall have one vote.

9. Place and Time of Board Meetings

a) The Board may hold its meetings at the office of the Corporation or at such other places, either within or without the State of New York, as it may from time to time determine.

b) All directors may participate in a regular or special meeting through the use of a conference telephone or any other means of communication by which all Directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A Director participating by this means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

10. Annual Meeting

An annual meeting of the Board shall be held immediately following the annual meeting of Members during the month of November at the place of such annual meeting of Members.

11. Regular Meetings

The regular meeting of the Board shall be held within the months of September, December, March and June.

12. Notice of Meetings of the Board, Adjournment

a) Regular meetings of the Board may be held without notice at such time and place, as it shall from time to time determine. Special meetings of the Board shall be held upon notice to the Directors and may be called by the President upon three days notice to each Director either personally or by mail or by wire; special meeting shall be called by the President or by the Secretary in like manner on written request of two Directors.

b) A majority of the Directors present, whether or not a quorum is present may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. Notice of the adjournment shall be given all Directors who were absent at the time of the adjournment and, unless such time and place are announced at the meeting, to the other Directors.

13. Chairman

At all meetings of the Board the Chairman, or in his absence a chairperson chosen by the Board, shall preside.

14. Executive and Other Committees

The Board, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board, may designate from among its members an executive committee and other standing or special committees, to the extent provided in such resolution, shall have all the authority of the Board, except as to the matters prohibited by Section 712 of the Not-For-Profit Corporation Law.

15. Compensation

No compensation shall be paid to Directors, as such, for their services.

16. Action without a Meeting

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board or any Committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board or the Committee consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action.

Article V Officers

1. Offices, Election, Term.

- a) The Board may elect or appoint a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, a Treasurer and an Assistant Treasurer, and such other officers as it may determine, who shall have such duties, powers and functions as hereinafter provided.
- b) All officers shall be elected or appointed to hold office until the meeting of the Board following the annual meeting of Members.
- c) Each officer shall hold office for the term for which he is elected or appointed and until his successor has been elected or appointed and qualified.

2. Removal, Resignation, Salary, Etc.

- a) The Board with or without cause may remove any officer elected or appointed by the Board.
- b) In the event of the death, resignation or removal of an officer, the Board in its discretion may elect or appoint a successor to fill the unexpired term.
- c) Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of Chairman and Secretary
- d) The salaries, if any, of officers shall be fixed by the Board.
- e) The Directors may require any officer to give security for the faithful performance of his duties.

3. Chairman

The Chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation; he shall preside at all meetings of the Members or the Board; he shall have the management of the business of the Corporation; he shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect; he shall be an ex officio member of all standing committees.

4. Vice-Chairman

- d) Disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered or authorized by the Board and preserve proper vouchers for such disbursements.
- e) Render to the Chairman and Board at the regular meetings of the Board, or whenever they require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation;
- f) Render a full financial report at the annual meeting of the Members if so requested.
- g) Be furnished by all corporate officers and agents at his request, with such reports and statements as he may require as to all financial transactions of the Corporation.
- h) Perform such other duties as are given to him by these By-laws or as from time to time are assigned to him by the Board or the Chairman.

8. Assistant Treasurer

The Assistant Treasurer shall assist the Treasurer and shall fulfill the duties of the Treasurer in the absence of the Treasurer.

Article VI Execution Of Instruments

All Corporate instruments and documents shall be signed or countersigned, executed, verified or acknowledged by the Chairman or by such Officer or Officers of other person or persons as the Board may from time to time designate, but unless so authorized by the Board, or expressly authorized by these by-laws, no Officer or agent shall have any power or authority to pledge the Corporation's credit or to render it liable pecuniary in any amount for any purpose. No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the Corporation unless specifically authorized by the Members.

Article VII Fiscal Year

The fiscal year shall begin on the first day of November in each year.

Article VIII References To Certificate Of Incorporation

Reference to the Certificate of Incorporation in these By-laws shall include all amendments thereto or changes thereof unless specifically excepted.

Article IX Indemnification

If a Director or Officer of the Corporation is made a party to any civil or criminal action or proceeding in any matter arising from the performance by such Director or Officer of his duties for or on behalf of the Corporation, then, to the full extent permitted by law, the Corporation, upon affirmative vote of the Board of Directors, a quorum of Directors being present at the time of the vote who are not parties to the action or proceeding, shall:

- (1) Advance to such Director or Officer all sums found by the Board, so voting, to be necessary and appropriate to enable the Director or Officer to conduct his defense, or appeal, in the action or proceeding; and
- (2) Indemnify such Director or Officer for all sums paid by him in way of judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement, and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees actually and necessarily incurred, in connection with the action or proceeding, or appeal therein, subject to the proper application of credit for any sums advanced to the Director or Officer pursuant to clause (1) of this Article.

The foregoing shall not obligate the corporation to purchase Directors' or Officers' liability insurance, but the Corporation may purchase such insurance if authorize and approved by the Board.

Article X By-Law Changes

Amendment, Repeal, Adoption, Election of Directors

The By-laws may be amended, repealed or adopted by vote of the Members at the time entitled to vote in the election of any Directors. By-laws may also be amended, repealed or adopted by the Board but any By-law adopted by the Board may be amended by the Members entitled to vote thereon as herein above provided.

Article XI Rules and Regulations

All members of this Corporation shall operate in accordance with the duly appointed rules, regulations, and laws of soccer as promulgated by FIFA, USSF Youth Division, NYSWWYSA, and this Corporation.

Article XII Affiliations

1. The Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club Inc. is a member of the New York State West Youth Soccer Association, and as such agrees to abide by the laws and procedures governing membership.
2. The membership of the Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club shall be open to any soccer players, coaches, trainers, managers, administrators, and officials not subject to suspension under Section 4 of Bylaw 241 of the United States Soccer Federation (USSF).
3. The USSF articles of incorporation, bylaws, policies, and requirements take precedence over and supersede the governing documents and decisions of the Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club to the extent applicable under state law, and the Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club will abide by those articles, bylaws, policies, and requirements.
4. The Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club will abide by the USSF's articles, bylaws, policies, and requirements on interplay.
5. The Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club will provide equitable and prompt hearing and appeal procedures to guarantee the rights of individuals to participate and compete. These procedures shall include that all grievances involving the right to participate and compete in activities sponsored by the USSF, the New York State West Youth Soccer Association (NYSWYSA), and the Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club may be appealed to the USSF's Appeals Committee in accordance with NYSWYSA bylaws and policies. The Federation's Appeals Committee shall have jurisdiction to approve, modify or reverse a decision. A decision rendered by the Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club or the NYSWYSA from which an appeal is taken is not suspended pending the final decision of the Federation's Appeals Committee unless the Committee otherwise orders. The decision made by the Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club or the NYSWYSA may be upheld, revised or reversed and remanded.
6. This corporation shall not discriminate against any individual on the basis of race, color, age, sex, or national origin.

2. Know, understand and teach the rules of the game of soccer. Create an environment for learning in which the players would develop to their highest potential.
3. Be responsible for maintaining and improving their knowledge and capabilities by attending courses and clinics whenever they become available.
4. Maintain contact with school personnel to minimize any potential conflicts with school functions.
5. Provide input to the coaching directors on the appointment of assistant coaches.
6. Evaluate players at the end of the indoor season and before the last home game of the outdoor season and provided written feedback to both the players and parents.
7. Must develop team goals, training plans and strategies for improving both players and team's skills.
8. Set policies and procedures for the proficient operation of the team.
9. Attend all league mandated coaches meetings.
10. Provide practice and game schedules to all players and parents in a timely fashion.
11. Report injuries, accidents, cards², fines, incidents, property and/or equipment damage etc. to the Coaching Director.
12. Coaches must first contact the coach of any player whom they are considering to invite to be a guest player on his or her team before contacting the player or parents. Full consideration must be given to the player's health and welfare and the obligations to their primary team.
13. Determine and provide to the registrar the final team's roster.

Relief of Responsibilities:

A coach may be relieved of his/her responsibilities if the actions of the coach are determined to put the safety or interest of the players and/or The Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club at risk. This determination to be made by a majority vote of the Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club board after hearing from any and all concerned parties.

¹ Attendance by both coaches at this meeting is mandatory. If neither coach is available then an alternate representative from the team must be present. A coach or representative can not represent more than one (1) team. Failure to provide meeting representatives may result in a fine payable by the coach of the team to the Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club within ten (10) days of the incident. Coaches with outstanding fines are subject to disciplinary action. The Board of Directors will establish the schedule of fines at the beginning of each season.

² Coaches to coordinate the activities with the parent, player and manager on the requirements for the recovery of the player's pass from the league's divisional co-ordinator.

Attachment C

Players

Objective:

The Wayne Wings organization believes in promoting good participation, sportsmanship, teamwork, and pride while teaching fundamental soccer skills. This framework is necessary to build a quality youth soccer program for the children of the residents in the Wayne Central School District.³

Tryouts:

1. Player must attend all tryouts until roster is complete/ closed.
2. Player may tryout for an older team with the recommendation and consent of the coaching director. (Rules governing players playing up are covered in Attachment F)

³ Under certain circumstances and with the Board's approval, players who reside beyond the district may be permitted to participate in the program.

⁴ Shinguards, ball, indoor and outdoor shoes, proper fitting clothes, water or sports drinks, etc.

Attachment D

Parents / Supporters

Parents

Parental participation is an important part of the team and club's success. The following are examples of the types of endeavors to which parents should be willing to commit their support.

1. Ensure their child fulfill his/her responsibilities to the team.
2. Provide assistance in fund raising for special events.
3. Share driving responsibilities for punctual transportation to and from tryouts, practices and games
4. Support the Wayne Wings Tournaments by fulfilling the duties assigned to your son's or daughter's team
5. Provide assistance and coordination in bringing refreshments to games and activities.
6. Help with the arrangements and implementation of local and out of town travel plans.
7. Treat officials with respect and as a guest of our club. Negative actions or remarks are inappropriate.
8. Show respect for the coaches and manager of a team. Open criticism is in poor taste. Should a problem develop, adults are expected to find an appropriate time and place to advise the coach/manager of their concern. The Wayne Wings Organization provides many avenues of appeal including coaches, managers, board members, and coaching directors, by which any Wayne Wings player or parent can pursue an issue.
9. Direct feedback to the club on the quality of coaching to include a decision to maintain the coaching staff.
10. Develop a team network to promote soccer as a family experience.
11. Complete the coaches' evaluation forms.
12. Are responsible for any personal fines levied by the league for misconduct.

Supporters

Relatives and friends are encouraged to attend as many games as possible and as such are considered part of the team. During these activities every effort must be made to treat officials and members of the opposing team with respect and as a guest of our club. If however, a team is penalized or fined by the league for supporter misconduct, the club would make every attempt to recover any cost from the offending individual(s).

Attachment E

Managers

The manager is the major connection between the team, (the coaching staff, players and parents) and all external contacts. He/She contributes significantly to the proper administration and success of the team.

Managers must be willing to:

1. Assist with the preparation of all rosters, registration forms, tournament applications forms or any other documentation necessary for the successful operation of the team.
2. Create phone trees and refreshment schedules.
3. Coordinate all field preparation activities with the facilities coordinator.
4. Create and distribute any instructions/directions/maps to the team's activities.
5. Administer and coordinate the fiscal obligations of the team. (i.e. referee's fees, tournament fees, fund raising activities, player's fines)
6. Sign game reports and collect the players' passes at the conclusion of the game.
7. Assist the coaching staff whenever possible with maintaining proper decorum on the sidelines.

Attachment F Players playing up⁵

A few players, who show exceptional ability, will have the opportunity to try-out and qualify to play on an older team. The club's policy on playing up is as follows:

1. The player must be given an invitation by any member of the coaching staff to try-out with the older team based on skills only.
2. The player must have parental permission to try-out for an older team.
3. The player qualifies to play on an older team by ranking in the top one third (1/3) of the team (the top 6 players) one age group higher and top two thirds (2/3) of the team (the top 12 players) two age groups higher.
4. The maximum number of players moving up by the above qualification is two per team.
5. If the club sees a need to move players around to maximize the total number of teams and players, the Board can offer an option to allow players to play up.
6. Special consideration will be given to experiences such as: ODP state level participation, playing at an advanced age group in the school program, playing at an advanced age group for a travel club, or playing on a sanctioned NYSW premier team.

⁵ The Board, on an individual case basis, must approve all exceptions to the following process. All decisions rendered by the board are final.

Attachment G

Team Structure

Team

A team is a collection of individuals getting together to function as a single unit. It will consist of coaches, players, managers, and supporters. Each team will consist of between 14 and 18 players, 1 Head Coach, 1 or more Assistant Coach and/or 1 or more Managers. The team may elect one of the individuals to act as the team treasurer. This person will work closely with the club's treasurer on all financial matters. Once a roster has been determined replacement would be governed by the rules and regulations of New York State West Youth Soccer Association (NYSWYSA) and its affiliations (USYSA, USSF, and FIFA).

Team Representative

Each team will designate team representatives who, on a rotational basis, will attend the board meetings on behalf of the team. By attending the meeting and sharing information on the team's activities, these individuals will provide a continuous communication channel among teams in the club.

Board Delegate

Each team will provide a board delegate who will become a member of the group from which board and officer positions will be filled. This function will help to maintain a vibrant and evergreen organization.

Attachment H Financials

Advances

On occasion, the treasurer will issue funds on behalf of a team to permit early registration at upcoming functions. It is the responsibility of the team personnel to collect the payments from their members and repay the treasury in a timely fashion, a period not to exceed two weeks after the completed event.

Authorization

All financial transactions undertaken on behalf of the club must have prior approval of the club's treasurer or designee and must be handled by check in the name of the Wayne Wings Youth Soccer Club.

Expenses

A player's budget that describes the projected annual expenses for the upcoming season would be set and distributed prior to the start of the fiscal year. This plan would be reviewed and adjusted yearly based on changes in league, game, tournament, referee, equipment and operating costs.

Refunds

Prorated refunds would be granted based on the recommendations of the player's coaches and manager and a predetermined timeline.

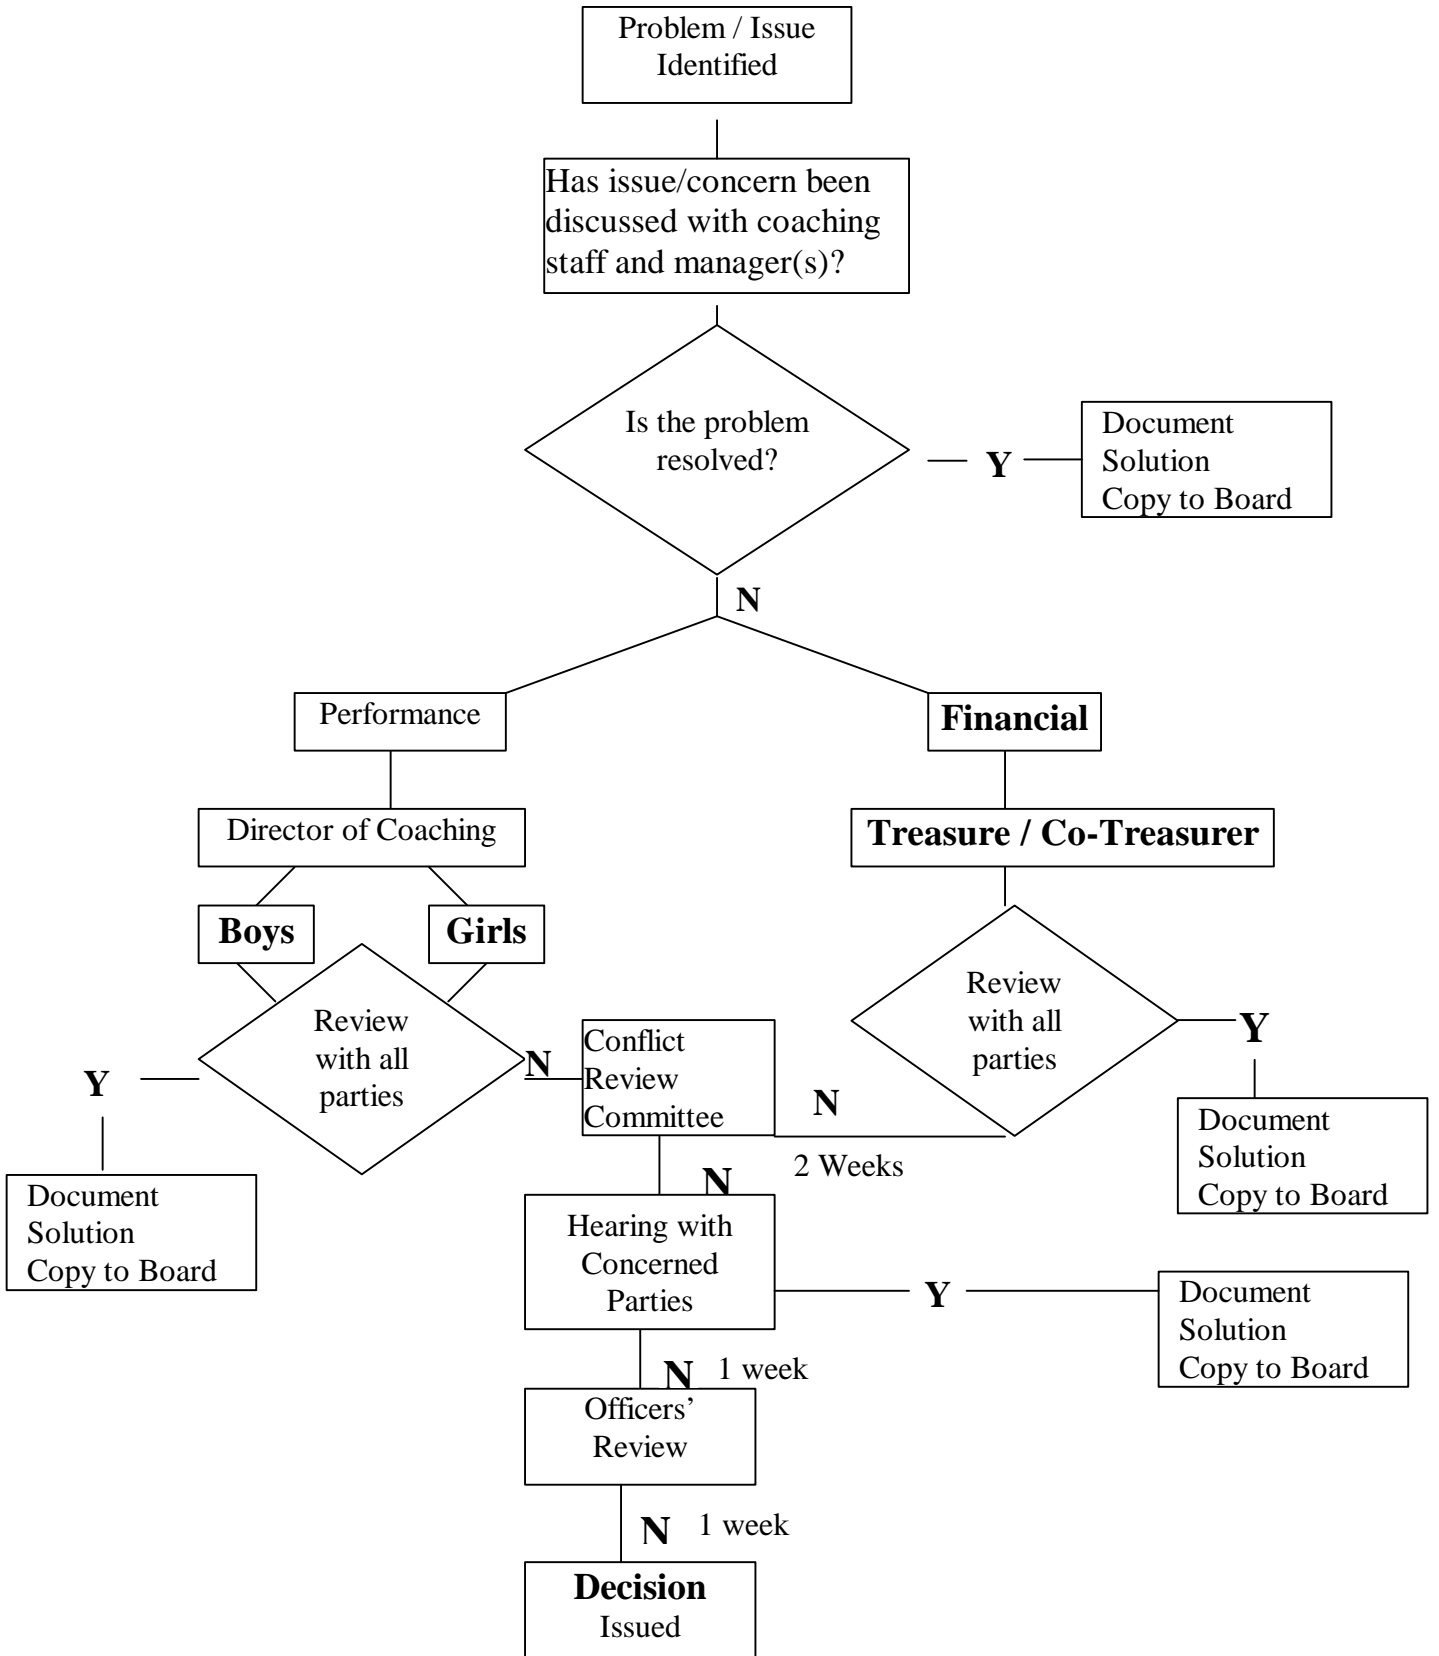

Between registration - first practice	Payment minus Registration fee
Two weeks prior to league registration	Payment minus Indoor fees
Prior to roster registration	Payment minus (Indoor + league fee)
After roster registration	Zero*
After first league game*	Zero*

* Prorated amount would be proposed based on the individual meeting the established league criteria for player withdrawal.

Disciplinary Actions

Individuals failing to adhere to the rules and regulations of the organization would be subject to disciplinary actions, which could range from suspension of rights and privileges to separation from the organization.

Attachment I Conflict Resolution

Annual Tryout Schedule

Team tryouts for the upcoming season will take place during the months of August and September. The following list references the weeks during which these activities would be held. The dates of each age group will be published by the first day of March of each year. The specific times and locations of the tryouts will be advertised through the local media at least one month prior to the first scheduled date.

U16 - First – Second weeks of August

U14 - Second – Third weeks of August

U12 - Second – Third weeks of September

U10 - Third – Fourth weeks of September
